INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

The Professional Sponge

Almost everyone knows a number of these people who go through life getting something for nothing out of their friends, and never yielding any return. They always follow you on the street cars and leave you to pay the fare; they walk a block to use a measured telephone and avoid the "drop a nickel" machine; they walk in on you at the cigar counter or soda fountain to be asked to accept a treat; they even manage to work their luncheon checks off on some good natured chap a good share of the time. They borrow a dollar, having "no change with me this morning," and forget to pay it back, and are your everlasting enemy if you have the temerity of asking it back. One borrowed a friend's auto last week and actually took it to the garage and ordered the gasoline tank filled and had it charged to the owner. Another borrowed an electric fan a year ago, and forgetting he had kept it all year, came for it the next year. Borrowing (?) postage stamps, carfare and such small things are too numerous to mention and yet we allow these fellows to live, and hear them boast of their wonderful incomes or their superior possessions. This may hit you, and it may hit others, but whoever it does hit "fer the luv of Mike," let him reform.

Mr. L. E. Crews, who purchased a ranch of 2,000 acres at Haigler, Nebr., five years ago, sold his property last week for $90,000.00, not including his herd of Short-Horns, which he expects will bring considerably more than the price paid for the land, in October. The venture has been a success, but the help proposition has been such that Mr. Crews considered it wise not to carry it farther. Mr. and Mrs. Crews are well known in Englewood, having lived for many years at 237 W. 61st St. They will remain on the ranch until December 1st.

Shrinkage of the Dollar

Instead of mourning the H. C. L., the philosophical way is to consider the shrinkage of the festive little dollar bill. Time was when it would do a whole lot of things, but now it is a very small affair, and has small purchasing power. It used to buy a fine roast for Sunday; enough sugar to last a month; two of them would buy an ordinary pair of shoes, and twelve a suit fit to wear on almost any occasion, but now it takes about twice if not three times as many, and although the pay envelope has become more plethoric, it does not keep pace with the shrinkage of the medium of exchange. It is going to take some time to adjust ourselves to new conditions, and we might as well endure the temporary inequalities and injustices in patience. Just because salaries are increased does not mean you are better off. The policeman with his $300 increase must pay $10 or $12 for the brogans he tramps his beat in, that formerly cost him $3. So with the firemen and the city clerks and other workingmen who have recently received increases. It will take some time to figure out why, when beef is so plentiful, the price should increase, and the same with coal and many other commodities, and it looks as if Uncle Sam, when through with the Germans, will have to put on the gloves with a greedy set of profiteers here at home.

Barkey's shoes—let live prices. (adv.)

A Pilgrim Silver Tea will be held at the home of Mrs. B. F. Paine, 503 62nd St., on Tuesday afternoon, July 15th.

The Misses C. G. and H. K. Schramm of 6613 Parnell Ave. are at White Lake, Mich., on their summer vacation.

Strange, but many central Englewood people do not have business on Halsted and State Sts. as often as two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nichols and children of 6905 Stewart Ave. will leave next week for their summer outing at Sister Bay.

Dr. Nellie Johnson and daughter, Irene Stewart, have returned from Kalamazoo, Mich., after settling up Mrs. Stewart's father's estate.

Peter Bartlo, a former saloon keeper at 6109 State St. had to contribute $75. out of his "near beer" profits to six foot pads, who held up his place Monday evening.

If you are looking for a handy man who can do all kinds of repair work and other odd jobs around your home, call for "Art." Phone Stewart 6998. (Adv)

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mehan of Beverly Hills, formerly of Englewood, celebrated their twentieth anniversary last Monday evening by giving a "chicken dinner," followed by a dance at "Black Bear farm," on West 95th St. Covers were laid for forty.

Thomas Jerred, son of Mrs. Carolyn Jerred Rosenthal, died at his home, 4612 Magnolia Ave., Thursday morning, July 3, of pneumonia, after an illness of three days. Tom just returned a few weeks ago with the 132 infantry from France, where he spent almost two years, being in the medical department of the Red Cross. He was gassed and spent several months in the base hospital near death. He was well known in Englewood, and was a member of the Invincible Boys of Englewood. He leaves a widowed mother, who is alone to mourn him. He was buried Saturday, July 5, at Rosehill cemetery, with military honors.

Edwin J Henderson, Jr., and Bruce C. Henderson, of 6203 Princeton Ave., both sergeants in Battery B, 122nd Field artillery, Prairie (33rd) division, were recommended for the Distinguished Service medal and received citations from General Pershing, Brig. Gen'l Todd and Major Gen'l George Bell, Jr., for "extraordinary heroism, distinguished service and exceptional gallantry," at the battles of Pouilly, Very and Argonne-Meuse. After the armistice they were in the army of occupation in Luxemburg for seven months, and were returned home and mustered out June 7. The Henderson boys are again with Armour & Co., and have received fine promotions and greatly increased salaries, showing one firm of this city that has lived up to and exceeded its promises to its young soldier-employes, who risked their lives and fought splendidly for the freedom of the world.

Hamilton Park was the mecca of many thousands. 2437 invitations written in long-hand to every soldier and sailor in the neighborhood promised a joyous welcome to those who came, and they did come, so did their mothers, their sweethearts, their sisters, their fathers and brothers, and even the second cousins. Thousands of packages of confections distributed freely among the kiddies started the fun. Races and games with 120 choice prizes, a flag raising by the boys of '61, community singing, patriotic addresses by Col. Henry A. Allen and others, acrobatics, folk-songs and dances, instrumental music, held some interest for every one. 140 gallons of hot coffee served free to all, milk for the babies, basket lunches for the soldier and sailor folk, scattered the crowd into little groups on the green until the park looked like one vast banquet hall. Thirty-five tubs of iced lemonade, 20,000 smokes given by the Englewood Business Men's Association were consumed by the boys in blue and kahki. Dancing to the music of the band, in the big wading pool drained dry and waxed, furnished after dinner entertainment and then came the fireworks. The celebration was financed by small subscriptions from the community folk. It was some celebration

WILL YOU HELP US PERSUADE MOTHER?

Mother is more than half persuaded now. All she needs is your hearty encouragement.

She has realized for some time that the modern Wet Wash Laundry with its perfect soft water systems, pure soap, improved family washing equipment, and highly skilled family washing experts is in a position to do the family washing with fine discrimination in the treatment of different fabrics; in fact to do it as well as she can do it and much better than she can hire it done in any other way.

You will agree with us that mother has enough to do without fussing with the family washing, whether she hires it done or does it herself.

Mother gets fearfully tired, but smiles and says she is feeling tip top when she is about ready to drop.

And we, careless perhaps, in our absorption in our own comforts, take her word for it.

But when we really face the question we know that mother must get very tired.

Isn't it about time to ease up on her? Isn't it time we insist that she ease up on herself?

There is more to life than eternal work.

Just you help us. Tell mother that it is really useless to fuss with the family wash.

Get her to bundle it up and send it to us, as so many other tired women have done. Just telephone Boulevard 161 or 166 today and our driver will call.

As a wild oats sower he was a complete failure. But as a character for a rollicking, spicy comedy, he furnishes one laugh after another in quick succession. Bryant Washburn in an adaptation of the stage farce by Martin Brown and Robt. Housum, supported by Anna Q. Nilsson, Helen Chadwick, Julia Faye, Helen Eddy, Noah Beery, Jane Wolf, Sylva Ashton, Mayme Kelso, Edward Burns, Charles West and others. Full of excitement and laughs. Also a two-part comedy, Pathe News and matinee only, "The Red Glove."

Monday July 14th, William Farnum in "The Lone Star Ranger." A vivid story of that historic Texan whose quick eye, quicker gun hand, life of constant peril in the wild, and intuitive understanding of men gave force to law in the Lone Star State. Into this section comes a man sworn to break up lawlessness and bring the leaders to justice. Success is within his grasp when he finds the leader of the gang is the father of the girl he loves. It's a situation to try the soul of the bravest man, but The Lone Star Ranger meets it as only a hero could.

Tuesday, July 15th, the Blue, the Gray, and the Khaki. "Secret Service," with Robert Warwick. The most successful play of the American stage, written about eighteen years ago by that great actor, William Gillette. This is not a picture or story about the great World War, but is a thrilling story of love and daring deeds of Americans, by Americans and for Americans. The supporting cast includes Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Kid McCoy, and other stars.

Wednesday and Thursday, July 17th and 18th, beautiful and talented Olive Thomas in "Up Stairs and Down." Miss Thomas is the first Selznick star and will make a series of eight pictures a year for that company. Her first picture, "Upstairs and Down," is a delightful comedy plus drama about a house party given by the elite of Long Island society and the scrapes and troubles of the "baby vamp," Alice Chesterton, the role ably portrayed by Miss Thomas.

Coming Friday and Saturday, July 18th and 19th, the typical American boy, Charles Ray, in another corking story, "Hay Foot, Straw Foot." Also Sunday and Monday, July 20th and 21st, Wm. S. Hart in "Square Deal Sanderson."

Constance Talmadge in "Happiness a la Mode," Saturday, July 12th.

Frenchy," with a stellar cast of principals, headed by Al Martin and Hazel Ford, who he has surrounded by a marvelous cast and a great chorus of 36 dancing ankles.

Efficiency of Advertising

Advertising also works for efficiency because it draws in trade from the surrounding country and near by towns, thus enabling the business of a place to be conducted on a bigger scale. A non-advertising town gets very little outlying country business. People prefer to go a greater distance to places that show more enterprise.

When new business is drawn in from the surrounding country, and the trade volume is thereby increased, the stores can buy in bigger lots at lower prices. The expense charge for each article sold is reduced.

Thus advertising tends to create a community of active, enterprising, wide awake stores, that do business enough and turn their capital fast enough so that their service is performed on an economical basis.

This point of view is sustained by the fact that in any bright and go-ahead town, there is always a large group of merchants who are liberal advertisers and who get the best trade of the community and near by country.

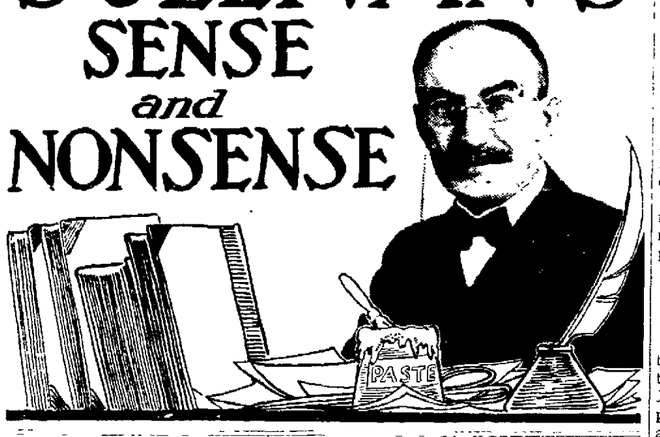
SULLIVAN'S SENSE and NONSENSE



"Be a Good Boy; Good-Bye!"

How oft in my dreams I go back to the day
When I stood at our old wooden gate,
And started to school in full battle array,
Well armed with a primer, and slate;
And as the latch fell I thought myself free,
And gloried, I fear, on the sly,
Till I heard a kind voice that whispered to me:
"Be a good boy; good-bye."

"Be a good boy; good-bye." It seems
They have followed me all these years;
They have given a form to my youthful dreams,
And they scattered my foolish fears.
They have stayed my feet on many a brink,
Unseen by a blinded eye:
For just in time I would pause and think:
"Be a good boy; good-bye."

Oh brother of mine, in the battle of life,
Just starting or nearing its close,
This motto aloft, in the midst of the strife,
Will conquer wherever it goes.
Mistakes you will make, for each of us errs,
But, brother, just honestly try
To accomplish your best. In whatever occurs,
"Be a good boy; good-bye."

Many men's greatest fault is in having so many small ones.

Casey says, "Paple who do be too frish, often gets into a pickle."

He—Did you see those motors skid?
She—How dare you call me that!

I never could understand how poor old Eve managed to dress without the aid of a mirror.

If shoes advance $3 and $4 a pair a fellow will have to own an automobile to save leather and economize on the shoes.

"This," said the goat, as he returned from the tomato-can and began with relish on the broken mirror, "this is indeed food for reflection."

"Do you think a man has a right to open his wife's letters?" Casey was asked, and he wisely answered, "Oi dunno about the roights iv ut, but begarry Oi don't see how a mon hov the courage."

"I asked your father's consent to our marriage over the telephone," explained the timid young man to his sweetheart." "What did he say?" she asked. "He said he didn't know who I was, but that it was all right, anyway."

Only the excessive modesty of the City Hall bunch prevents them from asking the city council to convert the big building into a hotel and providing them with free board also. I wonder what salary nine out of ten of that bunch would earn if placed into real commercial life?

A young lady friend was telling about going bathing over at Cheltenham Beach, knowing that she was very short sighted and wore glasses. I asked her if she wore glasses while bathing. She gave me an 18 degree below frezo look and answered "No smarty, I wear a bathing suit."

The mistress asked her new maid to post several letters for her, and afterward learned that two of the envelopes had not been addressed.

"Why did you post them when you saw they were not addressed?" she questioned the maid.

"I thought you didn't want any one to know who they were for," was the frank reply.

A foreign born citizen and his wife were not living together. A fire destroyed their home. The insurance company was resisting the payment of the policy of insurance thereon. The husband, on cross-examination, was asked by the lawyer for the insurance company if he and his wife were not separated. He replied; "not financially."

Unhappy is the man who can't go "on strike" these happy days.

Many college professers with diminutive salaries are now wishing they had learned the lucrative trade of street sweeping.

I had quoted to Casey, "No man can make a fool of himself all the time," when he rejoined, "No, tho' so, sure he must slape part in the toime."

Not unfrequently the exalted lodge member the whack of whose gavel brings all the members up standing, takes off his shoes outside the door when he goes home lest he waken his wife.

"How's the boy?" asks Casey of a lately made father." "Fine, he sleeps all the time," said the fond parent. "That's a sure sign he'll be a missinger bye and later a polacmin," replied Casey.

Casey says, "Me bye, don't mek the mistake of spinding yer airley loife studying and wasting yer loife learnnig a thrade er profession. Ef yiz are afther big muney larn to drive a strate car, or carry the hod."

An Englewood lady whom I know quite well and whose husband is a traveling man complained of being lonesome, and I asked if she read any fiction to pass her time. "Oh, yes. I get a letter from my husband nearly every day," was the sarcastic answer.

A schoolmistress asked her class to explain the word "bachelor," and was very much amused when a little girl answered: "A bachelor is a very happy man."

"Where did you learn that?" asked the mistress.

"Father told me," the little girl replied.

The bachelor friend had been invited to inspect the new baby at the home of a neighbor. Manlike he said: "Well, well, but he's a fine little fellow, isn't she? How old is it now? Do her teeth bother him much? I hope he gets through its second summer all right. She looks like you, doesn't he? Every one says it does." And then he went home in a hurry.

Mr. Kelly—"An' how are ye this mornin', Mistress Flynn? Is yer rheumatiz any better?"

Mrs. Flynn—"Well, yis, I think it is. I thank ye koindly. The new doctor's treatment is doin' me a worl' av good, I belave. He advoises me to take queen ann eternally and to rub anarchy on me j'ints. So I'm doin' it, an' I think it's helpin' me wonderfully."

A well known Englewood doctor was called to a Wallace St. address yesterday and when he arrived at the given destination he found that the patient was a decrepid old darkey who sat up in his shabby old bed and inquired: "How much yo' charge, doctah?" "Two dollars a visit, which includes my time, experience, advice and the medicine." "A poor old coon like me don't need all dem extras. Just gib me 10 cents' wo'th o' you' med'cine and dat's enough fo' me."

"There will be nothing but war talk heard all over the world for many years to come," said an author, "and our various armchair and cozy corner campaigners will be lucky if they don't make a lot of military mistakes. It was the same thing during and after the civil war. I remember asking a young lady at a musicale in Boston back in those distant days if she didn't think Mozart's 'Twelfth Mass' was superb. 'Superb!' she cried. 'It certainly is superb! Why my two brothers are in that regiment.'"

Casey was trying to call up some one on the telephone line but the girl operators were having an animated discussion about the elegant new robes they had just bought at Ikensteins at $3.98. Casey rattled the "hook" and angered the fair damsels exceedingly and one of them retorted, "What line do you think you are on anyway?" and the suffering Michael answered, "Oi am not right sure, Mem, boot from the talk iv yez Oi thinks Oi do be on the clothes line," and he got his connection.

Read Our Prosperous Bank Statements

In another part of this issue will be found the official statements of our most substantial local and neighborhood banks and they are well worth reading. They show a great increase in business and every one shows that their deposits have had a very healthy growth. This means we are doing more business than ever and that our people are saving more money and are more prosperous. While we have no millionaires (outside of the newspaper class), we are probably the most comfortable suburb of the big city, with no great individual wealth, and with no individual poverty. This is real prosperity.

Greatest 4th of July Celebration in Town

This was the verdict of all who attended the exercises and witnessed the big doings at Hamilton Park on July 4th. The organization was complete, and everything moved along according to program, for which much credit is due Mrs. C. S. Clark and her co-workers. The reception given the thousands of soldier and sailor men was most hearty and spontaneous. The Englewood Business Men's Association came to the front handsomely with their stand and entertainment. It would be impossible to discriminate where all did so well, and we congratulate and thank everyone who took part; all did their share and did it nobly, so that Hamilton Park and Englewood will hereafter be on the map for 4th of July celebrations.

Of Course We Are All Honest. But—?

It is our rule to insist upon payment in advance of all advertisements in our classified columns, but personal appeals by telephone and mail, innumerable and very plausible excuses have caused us to violate it, and since the first of the year we find just $64.35 due us from these friends who "will send the money right away." We have been to the expense of bookkeeping amounts from 25c to $1.50, have had to make entries, confused our system, and suffered this loss, just to be "a good fellow." We cannot afford to keep books in this department and henceforth this rule will be enforced indiscriminately, and in the meantime if any who know they owe us these small amounts feel like mailing it to us, we are in a receptive mood right now.

A Free Book About Preserving Every Housewife Should Have

Even Beginners Can be Sure of Success by Following its Suggestions

Good preserving is now very easy. Most of your preserving difficulties have come from using sugar alone.

Make your preserving syrup with ½ Karo (Red Label) and ½ sugar—and you can be sure of your results.

You can always count on good, clear jams and jellies with this recipe—and you can be sure that they will not grow tough or "candied" in the glass.

This fine, clear Karo Syrup has a natural affinity for the fruit juices. It blends the sugar with the fruit and brings out the full "fruity" flavor.

For Cooking, Baking and Candy Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

FREE A real cook book including recipes for sure results in preserving, everybody appreciates. Sixty-eight pages handsomely illustrated. Write us today. The book is free.
